

Notice Regarding Background Investigation Pursuant to California Law

One or more consumer reports may be obtained by MoneyGram Payment Systems, Inc. and/or its parent, affiliate, or subsidiary companies (collectively, the "Company") for employment purposes prior to any offer of employment and prior to other employment decisions including decisions regarding promotion, reassignment or retention as an employee.

These consumer reports may include information concerning your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, and mode of living. They may also include investigative consumer reports, through which information concerning your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, and mode of living may be obtained through interviews. The nature and scope of any consumer report or investigative consumer report may include criminal history, social security verification, motor vehicle records, verification of your education or employment history, or other background information.

The consumer reports will be provided to the Company by Verified Credentials, Inc., 20890 Kenbridge Court, Lakeville, MN 55044, 800-473-4934, www.verifiedcredentials.com.

Under section 1786.22 of the California Civil Code, you may view the file maintained on you by the consumer reporting agency named above during normal business hours if you furnish proper identification. You may also obtain a copy of this file upon submitting proper identification and paying the costs of duplication services, by appearing at the offices of the consumer reporting agency identified above in person or by submitting a written request for a specified addressee to receive a copy by certified mail. You may also make a written request to receive a summary of the file by telephone. Any toll charge for a telephone disclosure must be prepaid or will be charged directly to you. The agency is required to have personnel available to explain your file to you and the agency must explain to you any coded information appearing in your file. If you appear in person, a person of your choice may accompany you, provided that this person furnishes proper identification.
