

Independent Review

What is the purpose of an Independent Review?

The purpose of an Independent Review is to monitor the completeness and effectiveness of an Agent's anti-money laundering (AML) program as required by applicable laws and regulations and MoneyGram's policies and requirements. The Independent Review should, at a minimum, include a review, evaluation and test of the:

- Overall adequacy and effectiveness of the written anti-money laundering program, including policies and procedures.
- Designation, authority and expertise of the Agent's compliance officer.
- Employee training for adequacy, accuracy and completeness.
- Effectiveness of transaction monitoring systems and related government regulatory reporting.
- Overall process for identifying and filing suspicious activity reports to the relevant authorities as required by applicable laws and/or escalating suspicious or unusual activity to MoneyGram when necessary.
- Adherence to other applicable regulatory requirements.

Items to note:

- An Independent Review of your AML program is required by Federal AML regulations.
- The Independent Review must be conducted by a person or persons who is/are knowledgeable about the applicable anti-money laundering regulatory requirements.

You may decide that an internal area such as the internal audit group or another 'independent' area within your company would conduct the Independent Review. Or, you may decide that the Independent Review should be conducted by an external reviewer / third party.

- Regulatory inspections / audits / examinations are not considered an Independent Review.
- MoneyGram requires Independent Reviews to be conducted periodically or as often as required by applicable laws, regulations or MoneyGram.
- Independent Reviews need to be documented in writing. In addition, you need to track the deficiencies found during the Independent Review that relate to MoneyGram's products and services as well as document the corrective actions you took to address those deficiencies.
- The Independent Review Form (the following pages) serves as a reference guide. The Independent Reviewer must consider any applicable local country regulatory requirements.
- Once the Independent Review has been completed and signed by the reviewer, please keep and store the completed form and results with the other anti-money laundering program related documents for at least 5 years or longer as required by applicable laws and regulations. You must willingly present the completed form when asked by a MoneyGram representative or provide an attestation letter.

The Agent's Independent Review cannot be conducted by the designated Compliance Officer or an employee reporting directly to the Compliance Officer.
