

Josh Gordon-Blake, Chief Digital Officer

Josh Gordon-Blake was named Chief Digital Officer in August 2024. In this role, he leads the Company's digital strategy with a focus on the growth and global expansion of MoneyGram Online.

Prior to joining MoneyGram, Gordon-Blake co-founded Pangea, a digital money transfer business, where he most recently served as Chief Operating Officer. Under his leadership, Pangea achieved significant growth, culminating in its successful acquisition by Enova International in 2021. Beyond his operational expertise, Josh is active in the venture capital community, serving as an angel investor and founding Limited Partner at Rally Cap Ventures, an early-stage fund focused on fintech investments in emerging markets.

Gordon-Blake holds a bachelor's degree in economics from Lake Forest College in Lake Forest, Illinois, and a J.D. from University of Chicago Law School.
